The Spindle

No bridge is built by one man. Neither is "The Spindle" published through the efforts of one person, but by the efforts of all. If it weren't for the cooperation of the whole staff, you could not have a yearbook.

The success of this book is due to the kind cooperation of the faculty and the student body. To Miss Ryan the staff extends sincere thanks, for without her experience and aid this book would not exist. To Miss Lyons and the Secretaries of the "Review" and "Spindle", we express our gratitude for the long hours they have spent in typing copy.

The staff, since the opening of school, has striven to bring you a treasure chest of memories of your high school days. In years to come you can look with pride upon your accomplishments here at high school. Although the future is uncertain, you can be proud of the fact that you were students of the class of '54 at Lowell High.

Turn this page and find out why.

Class Ode 1954

As we go o'er the span of life,
  Our way beset by foes,
We feel the trembling of the bridge
  And see the ledge below.

We'll keep our eyes upon the sky:
  Our tread we'll firmly place.
We'll see the dangers pressing in
  And work to win our race.

Our friends we'll need, God's message heed,
  And struggle through each day,
We'll know life's joy; we'll feel life's pain;
  Accept each loss and gain.

We'll keep our eyes upon the sky;
  Our tread we'll firmly place.
We'll conquer dangers pressing in
  And win our final race.

JAMES MCLAUGHLIN
TUNE—America, The Beautiful

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN—Headmaster

Those modern, constructive, men of science who developed transistors, electronics, atomic energy, and synthetic fabrics, as well as the early experimentors who gave the world the primary laws of electricity, the basic principles of weaving on a hand loom, and the fundamentals of architecture, were all at one time in their lives, at the same stage of intellectual development as are the members of the graduating class of 1954.

Essentials of construction in every field are astonishingly similar, transcending nations, and lifetimes. Following the American way, we hope we have developed talent here at every level, for every variety of demand, so that the graduates will be able to fulfill their inherent promise by expanding their capabilities as they meet the tests life offers.

The Band

The Band

Whenever we say music, we think of the Lowell High School Band. Organized January 1, 1924, it has built its way up to one of the most popular attractions at the football games, pep rallies and many other affairs. Mr. William Notini has been in charge of the Band for a number of years, and may be given the credit of conducting a fine and outstanding outfit. Every year the boys and girls in Red and Gray add something new to their merits. This year the Band travels to a concert in New Hampshire. This event will be on TV.

Bookroom

Front: Jo Ann Walsh, Rachael Vale, Patricia Walker. Rear: Delores Trudel, Cecile Unis, Theresa Zarzycha, Jeanne Williamson, Doris Wilkins, Mr. Reardon.

At the beginning of the year Mr. Francis Reardon appoints girls from his home room to work in the bookroom. These girls spend their spare hours in the bookroom and keep a record of the English reading and grammar books that the teachers take out. They also help Mr. Reardon take inventory of all the English books.

This year's baseball team is coached by Stanley Stoklosa, who won his one hundredth victory with last year's team. This year he has some very good boys, including a few hold-overs from '53. The captain of the '54 team is Bud Slattery.

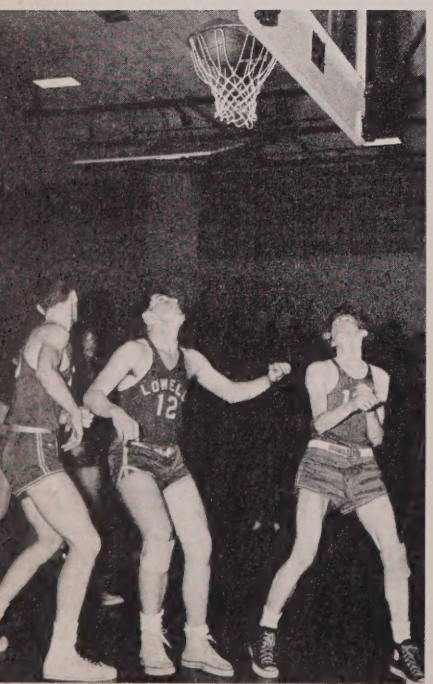
Basketball



The 1954 Lowell High Basketball squad, coached by Anthony Archinski and his assistant, Sam Goodzoozian, had a run of bad luck this year. Although they came out second in the inter-city tournament, their record was only five to eighteen.

The boys still deserve much credit, since they played in one of the toughest leagues in New England.

Captain Richard Rooney, a standout player, scored a total of 372 points with an average of 18; placing him a runner-up for the individual city scoring record.

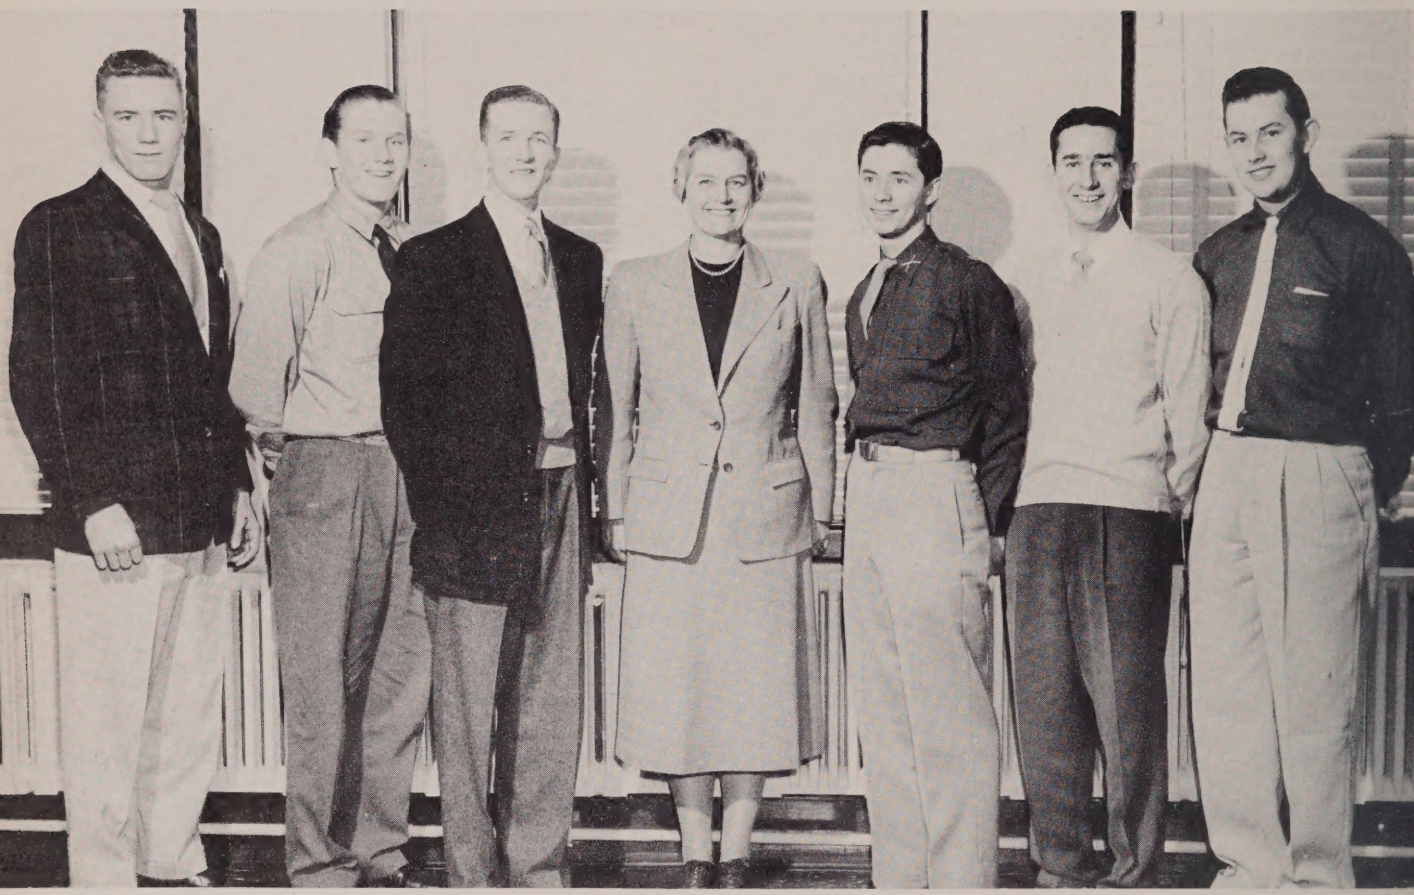
Track Team

The track team, under the direction of Coach George "Mike" Haggerty, once again romped to an almost undefeated indoor season. Ably led by their Captain, Dick Hackett, they met their only defeat at the hands of Newton High. Helping to add to the points during the season were Dave Stecchi, John Douglass, John Inglis, James Liston, and John Szuforarowski.

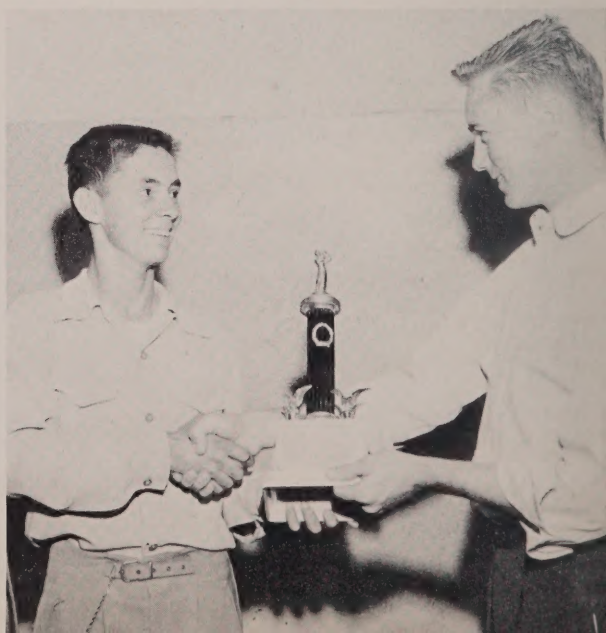
Golf



James Dean, Richard Paquette, Pierre Brunelle, Miss Rose O'Neil, Manuel Francis, James Ladakos and Thomas Fitzgerald.

Twice a week the 1954 golf team is coached by David Hackney at the Vesper-Country Club. The faculty advisor is Miss Rose M. O'Neil.

The team, with James Dean as its captain, won the Merrimack Valley Golf Tournament in 1953.



Cheerleaders

Front: Marcia Racicot, Cynthia Delmore, Joan McDermott, Irene Labelle. Rear: Dawn Ouellette, Carol Finneral, Carol Donnelly, JoAnn Seery, Betsy Dove, Collette Houle, Jean Ososki, Jacqueline Hoar.

These peppy girls in their red and gray uniforms lead thousands of cheering fans at all of our successful football games. Rain, sleet, and snow couldn't keep these girls down. In all kinds of weather they are out on the field cheering on their football team. In the group are Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior Girls.

"Archie Andrews"

First Row: Sally Crockett, Alice Murray, Barbara Davinis, Jane Downing and Nancy Cohen. Second Row: Millicent McGuire, Sheila MacDowell, Bernard Burns, Edmund Bellegard, Robert Lapadula, Fred Turcotte, James Thomas and Margreta Sheridan.

Hard work and nine weeks of concentrated rehearsals under the direction of Miss Mary Casey resulted in the successful production, "Archie Andrews," a three-act comedy by Carl Jampel. It is one of the more memorable misadventures of the same familiar teen-ager popular in books and on radio.

Cast in the various parts are: Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Robert Lapadula and Alice Murray; Archie, James Thomas; Martha, Barbara Davinis; Betty, Nancy Cohen; Mrs. Jenkens, Sally Crockett; her daughter Genevieve, Millicent McGuire; Jughead, Philip Nyman; Veronica, Sheila MacDowell; Pinky, Fred Turcotte; Mayor Higgins, Edmund Bellegarde; Uncle Oscar, Bernard Burns; Agatha, Margreta Sheridan; Messenger Boy, Brian Sully; and prompter, Jane Downing.

Everyone admires the baton twirlers in their gold and white uniforms, but few know the history of this organization. After Wilfrid J. Boulger organized and traine a unit of thirty members in the Fall of 1935, the twirlers made their first appearance at the Thanksgiving Day game in Lawrence. This resulted in a regular performance at football games, and various Music Festivals throughout New England. They have appeared at Boston Garden with nationally known stars such as Eddie Fisher and Ed Sullivan.

This year the membership consists of eighty girls including eight leaders.

Two of the biggest events in the life of a majorette are the Championship Contest, in which the most accomplished girl of the more experienced division is honored by medals given by Mr. Boulger; and the Rookie Contest, held later in the season to select the girl most advanced in her first year of twirling.

Twirling is a year round activity which enables its members to perfect their posture and poise.

Room 100

Lillian Pearsall, Elizabeth Owen, Glenda Sherburne, Annette Desrosiers and J. Emmett Harris.

Everyone in Lowell High School is well acquainted with Room 100. Here every student may purchase locker keys, obtain tickets, and regain lost articles. Mr. Harris and his efficient assistants are always helpful and friendly in their attention to all the pupils of the school who have occasion to use their services.

"Les Pompons Rouges"

Front: Michael Meyers, Judi Hince, Richard Harrington, Sally Crockett, Carolyn Trull and Amey Pepin. Rear: Judy Merrill, Robert Miller, Murray Blackadar, Barbara Smith, Janice Hartwell and Doris Sherburne.

Organized in the fall of 1951, Les Pompons Rouges has become one of the most popular clubs in school. Formed primarily for students interested in French, this club has been under the supervision of the head of the French department, Miss Hildegarde St. Onge. The elected officers for the year of 1954 are Richard Harrington, President; Sally Crockett, Vice-President; Carolyn Trull, Secretary; Amey Pepin, Assistant Secretary; Judi Hince, Treasurer; Michael Myers, Assistant Treasurer.

Each year the club plans to contribute to the scholarship or the library funds.

Speaker's Bureau

Front: Colette Houle, Alice Murray, Barbara Smith, Barbara Davinis, Janice Hartwell and Meredith Trull. Middle: Willard Sinnett, Philip Nyman, Robert Lapadula, Howard Stuart, Donald Narankevicuis, Bernard Burns and Barbara Cross. Rear: Dorothy Dixon, Beverly Byam, Judith Sullivan, Helen Wilcox and Joan I'Ansen.

With the community's interest at heart, Miss Mary Casey has led the Speakers' Bureau forward in an endless effort to bring closer together the interest and needed support for our Lowell Tuberculosis Association, the Community Concert, and other civic groups.

Many of our school's finest speakers are given special training to enable them to participate in our "Lowell High School Journal of the Air," and speak to such fine organizations as the Middlesex Women's Club. Throughout the year, at assemblies given in honor of men and women who have added so much to our human progress, fine orations are presented by individuals of this group.

By dedicating themselves to such worthy causes, the members of the Speakers' Bureau have earned an honored place among the many fine organizations of our school.

Junior Class Officers

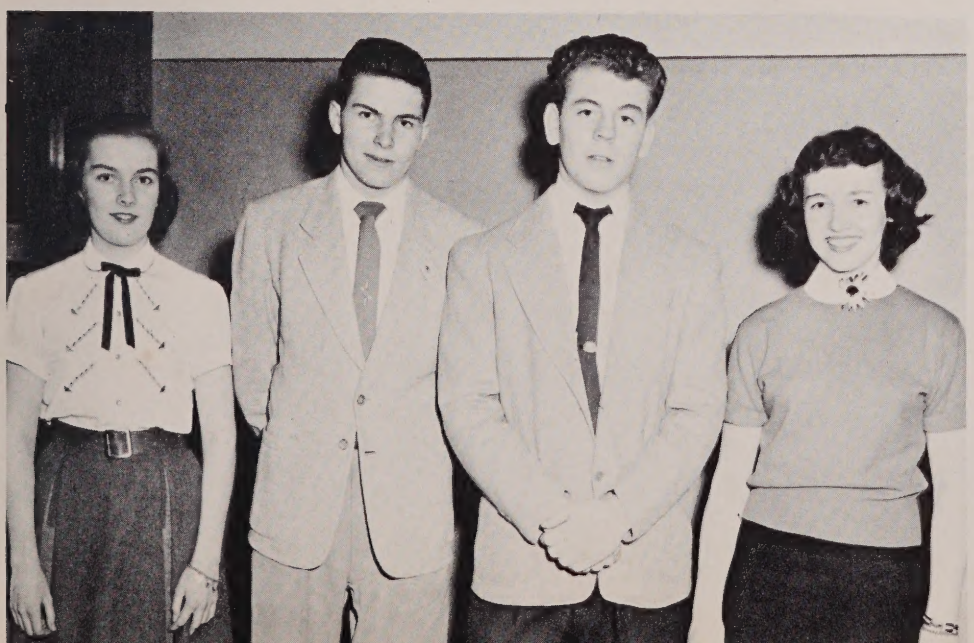
Sophomore Class Officers

Phyllis Veiga, Helene Brunelle, Ruth Ann McCaffrey, Spiros Flomp and Denise Normandin.



Freshman Class Officers

Treasurer, Brenda Joy; First Vice President, Michael Netishen, President, Michael Keohane; Secretary, Pauline Pearsall.

National Honor Society

Front: Marie Jeanotte, Barbara Davinis, Christopher Eliades, Joseph Palermo, Barbara Smith, JoAnn Moore, Alice Murray, Christas Bentas, George Byam. Middle: Elaine Ferreira, Rosaline Camara, Paris Koufagazas, Patricia Tierney, Beverly Byam, Doris Sherburne, Joan Banakos, Evelyn Swistak, Athena Letsou, Martha White. Rear: Ruth Johnson, Janice Hartwell, Ellen McAdams, Diana Lyko, Joan Dery, Thelma Brown, Mary Peroney, Marilyn Hall, Queena Flomp, and Barbara Draper.

"The Flaming Torch held high above the Bridge of Life to light the way," is the symbol of the principal purposes and high ideals of the most honored attainment for any student. Members of the National Honor Society have given evidence that they can expand in Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

All those Juniors who have grades of at least 90%, within the highest 5% of their class, and those Seniors within the highest 15% of their class, are united in membership under the capable direction of Mr. Charles D. Foley. Previously organized in 1927 under the auspices of Miss Helen Choate, who wrote the initiating ritual, the National Honor Society still arches above all other Scholastic Achievements.

Home Room Representatives

Without the help of the Senior Home Room Representative, very little could be accomplished in the management of the class. Elected by their respective homerooms, they started right away on the first project—selling tickets to the school show. Then the representatives began collecting class dues, and supervising the distribution of caps and gowns.

There's no doubt about it, the Senior Home Room Representatives are necessary to the class activities.

Greenhalge Debating Society

Front: Mr. Reardon, Richard Bridgford, Shirley Bilodeau, Dorothy Danas, George Stevens. Middle: Stephen Domesick, Herbert Kazer, Elaine Sobolewski. Back: William Hildick, Doris Belanger, Joseph McCarthy, Peter Brennan, Edward Sokolowski. Top: James Heenan, president.

One of the outstanding activities found in the high school curriculum is the Greenhalge Debating Society. It is under the very capable direction of Mr. Francis D. Reardon, faculty advisor.

The debating team faces its competition at Boston University, Merrimack College, and Emerson. Lowell High School has won a two-year stronghold on a large trophy given by Emerson College.

The officers this year are: James Heenan, president; Dennis Brennan, first vice-president; Eleanor Kelley, second vice-president; Dorothy Danas, secretary; and William Hildick, sergeant-at-arms.

Floormasters' Secretaries

At the close of the year applications are distributed to the shorthand and typing teachers for all junior girls interested in being a floormaster's secretary during their senior year. From these applications Miss Mary Lyons selects a secretary for every hour of the day for each of the floormasters. These girls work in the offices of the various floormasters, helping to prepare themselves for future business careers.

Elevator Operators

A valuable asset to teachers as well as to pupils recuperating from illnesses is the time-saving elevator in the high school building. The elevator operators are chosen on the basis of their merit and their efficiency by Capt. Murray from his large army of boy officers.

Girl Officers

Striving to arouse community interest in civic organizations, and build leadership and moral character among girls, is the goal of Miss Bawita Lawler's Girl Officers Organization.

As Juniors, the girls work hard and long for perfection in clubs, marching, commands, dancing, and posture. On a selected June day, when "try-outs" are held, three out-of-town judges are present to score each girl individually on her achievements in each field.

This year's G. O. Ball took place on January 22, and true to fashion it appeared to be by far the loveliest ever held.

Ushering and checking at numerous school and civic affairs completes a well rounded program for the seventy-two senior girls each year.

Cooperative Retailing

The students of Lowell High School are fortunate that their school is one of the few in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts that offers a course in Cooperative Retailing.

Students whom Miss Claire Quigley accepts for this course are trained in all phases of Merchandising and Retailing, by actual working assignments in the local business establishments and by classroom work in related subjects.

Seniors who complete this course are basically equipped for a successful career in Merchandising and many of its related fields.

All of the cooperating etsablishments are interested in this training, because from the graduates of the group will come many future buyers and executives.

Driver's Education

This year for the first time L.H.S. has a car in which to give Behind-the-Wheel-Driver-Training to the students. For the past three years Miss Rose O'Neil has conducted the classes of driver education in the classroom. Now with Mr. Nicholas Apostolakas appointed as instructor, Behind-the-Wheel-Training and Driver Education has become a full course which counts as 1½ points towards graduation. Since a new state law has been passed which gives a 15% reduction in insurance rates to teen-age drivers who have taken Driver Education and Behind-the-Wheel Training in High School, many students have taken advantage of these classes. From this course will come the better, safer, drivers of tomorrow.

The European Culture Club is like a bridge starting in Lowell and crossing over to Europe, giving the members of the club a glimpse into the lives and customs of people in European Countries. The members are given a greater span of knowledge by seeing movies and hearing talks by interesting people on different countries which they have visited or seen.

The officers are President, Barbara Smith; Vice-President, Alice Murray; Secretary, Janice Hartwell; Treasurer, Patricia Kelley and Program Chairman, Maureen Cote.

Newswriting

One of the most active elective classes in our school is the Newswriting Class. Under the capable direction of Miss Anna Ryan the members have written copy for the "Lowell High School Journal of the Air", and they have worked diligently on the "Spindle". This year, as a new enterprise, during the football season, they wrote a column called "Stadium Sidelines" for the football programs sold at the stadium. At the end of the year they edit the handbook which is distributed to entering classes each fall.

Special Chorus

Under the capable direction of Miss Gertrude O'Brien and her assistant, Mrs. Fred Drescher, the fifty voice special chorus sings at school assemblies and programs, civic organizations and educational groups in and around Lowell.

An example of the musical culture of our school, the special chorus members are Junior and Senior girls and boys selected by Miss O'Brien after they have been auditioned. Rehearsing every Thursday after school, the maroon-robed students are organized under Christos Bentas, President; George Dowery, Vice-President; Alice Murray, Secretary; and John Santos, Treasurer.

Orchestra

Front: Mary-Jo Hyde, Joyce Bradley, Robert Lapadula, Sylvia Gould, Nadia Thompson, Kenneth Trombley, Eric Pihl, Barbara Falante and Christos Bentas. Middle: Mr. Notini, Mary Conroy, Judy Genest, Ann Polianites, Sibyl Magiera and Paul Green. Rear: Helen Wilcox, Barbara Fox, Frances Karol, John Zgrebnak, Jo-Ann Goward, Fred Turcotte, John Scott, James Reidy, George Ares, Louis Trainor and Gerald Rivet.

For over thirty-seven years the L. H. S. Orchestra has continued to be an outlet for fine musical talent. This year Mr. W. J. Notini has assumed the duties of orchestra director as well as director of the band. In past years he has had only two predecessors: Mr. Fred O. Blunt, who started the orchestra in 1916; and Miss Gertrude O'Brien, who was the leader from 1930 until 1953.

The Orchestra rehearses every Tuesday afternoon in the Cyrus W. Irish Auditorium. Members of the musical group, chosen from every class in the school, receive one-point credits. The Orchestra performs frequently at assemblies, plays and other local functions.

Alan Matley, Thomas Riggs and John Kanavas.

A most outstanding group of the military training offered to the high school Junior or Senior is military police. This important part of the cadet regiment was organized in the high school by Capt. Murray in 1948. The group was under his training until 1950, when Captain Joseph Whitehead was given the task of making the M.P.'s a sharp outfit.

With its white helmets, sports, and braids, and also shiny medallions and trick drills, the Military Police Outfit was a great asset to the high school Field Day.

Cadet Officers

The Cadet Officers of the Lowell High School Regiment, originally formed in 1880, are presently led by Captain James F. Murray. The officers are selected by written examination, those receiving the highest marks become captains. The colonel, lieutenant colonels, and majors are selected by competitive drill. This group is responsible for the conduct of their respective companies in the annex, on Field Day, and on Memorial Day. Besides marching they preside at civic inaugurals and at various social events throughout the year.

Personnel

One of the busiest groups in the school is the personnel staff. The members of the department spend their time mimeographing tests, office forms, daily absentee lists and notices, schedules, and typing letters. Besides doing work for the school, they are often called upon to mimeograph or type material for outside organizations.

Students taking commercial courses train during their Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years to acquire experience and a knowledge of office procedure.

A student who has completed a year of specialized training in this department, under Miss Mary V. Lyons, Faculty Advisor, is ready to span the gap into the business world with a sense of integrity and business courtesy. This year twenty-one Seniors, chosen for their outstanding work in the Junior year, are serving on the staff.

The Review

For sixty-seven years the school publication has been known as "The Review." Originally a small newspaper, later a magazine, the present format has been used for the past thirteen years.

Annually, from over a hundred applications, Miss Anna Ryan and members of the English Department select the staff on the basis of scholarship and journalistic aptitude. With headquarters in Homeroom 118, the staff prepares an issue for each month of the school year.

This year the Editor-in-Chief was Brendan McAdams. The hard working secretaries were Pauline Scarmeas, Patricia Polski and Patricia Tetro.

I never kiss; I never neck;
I never say darn; I never say heck.
I'm always good; I'm always nice.
I play no poker; I'm always no dice.
I never drink; I never flirt.
I never gossip or spread the dirt.
I have no line or funny tricks
But what's the use; I'm only six.

To Seniors

September came—and so did school.
No more time to laugh and fool,
We'll study hard and we'll get by.
Because we come from Lowell High.
We'll meet new friends and keep the old,
We'll treasure them all—much more then gold.
The boys of course, will interest us—
Tom, Dick, Harry, and even Gus.
I hope this year will be over best:
Our teachers will put us to the test,
We'll have surprises and disappointments, too.
But in the end, we'll all pull through.

Science Club

This year nearly two hundred students have joined the Science Club which is under the supervision of Mr. James L. Conway. The members have enjoyed a series of lectures, field trips and demonstrations which were delivered by various members of the club. The purpose of the club is to stimulate some interest in and desire for scientific study and research. The members meet every other Friday in Room 310.

The officers are: President, Douglas Schliebus; Vice-President, Arthur Diette; Secretary, Maureen Cote; Treasurer, Patricia Kelly; Program Chairman, Athena Letsou.

Switchboard Operators

The students who were appointed to the staff of switchboard operators this year, become a part of the office personnel for the purpose of obtaining valuable experience in office procedure and behavior.

In addition to operating, they checked on dismissal slips, kept an accurate record of all out-going calls, and were prompt and courteous at all times.

This year under Miss Mary Lyons and Miss Berthe Desmarais, there are fourteen girls on the switchboard.

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Mary V. O'Neil, is open to all pupils who are taking Spanish. At their many meetings, members see pictures on Spain and Mexico, and hear interesting talks on Spanish-speaking countries. Two people are chosen at each meeting to plan the entertainment for the next meeting. Spanish is spoken to great extent.

Officers include: President, Nancy Cohen; Vice-President, Freda Goldman; Secretary, Marcia Kaplan; Treasurer, Janet Reidy.

Lunchroom

Mr. John Leary, manager of the lunchroom, annually chooses groups from each class to aid in the orderly conduct of the recess periods. The boys and girls enjoy their work which is really essential for the efficient conducting of the periods for eating.

Stacia Murray, Helen Cronin, Nellie Donnelly, Daisy Meunier, Bernice Dundon, Kitty Lannan and Josephine McHugh.

Only GAS DOES SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE

. . . and the more you use the less it costs!

● It's not only good for your health, your comfort and your convenience to use gas . . . It's good for your budget, too . . . Because the more gas you consume, the less you pay per cubic foot.

● It's the old story of volume purchasing that's at work. The more oranges you buy, the less you pay for each orange. The bigger the turkey you buy, the less you pay per pound. Apples by the bushel cost less per apple than apples by the peck . . . And so on.

● Let us prove how little it costs for gas when you use it wisely and widely . . .
